Ye Bloodthirsty Thunder Pirates,

Arrr, the time be upon us to gin up something clever to wear fer pirate day. I'll expect all you scurvy dogs to be in your finest slops on September 20th. See PICs—>

Another busy month has passed with moonlight sails, an excellent club meeting, NROTC classes and a Keel boat class. Special thanks should go out to Mike Klatt for orchestrating the NROTC class with detailed schedules and lesson plans. The volunteer turnout for the class was commendable. What really impressed me was that 3 or 4 of last years graduates that came back to help with the class.

We had some fun races through the month with Paul Reynolds and Bill Etchieson serving as rabbits and PROs. I'll be missing the September Commodores Cup, but the rest of you should be sure to turn out for the 1:30 skippers meeting at the boathouse on September 7.

The McDonalds Cup race on Memorial day was one of the toughest contests of rough-shod sailing I have seen in a while. This no holds barred contest went in to a tie breaker with ol' Cap'n Les Cummings bringing in the winning leg. Of note, were the creative rules of right of way and Dave Craigie's blind-plunge off the Sunfish. And the interesting line dance that followed to find Dave's spectacles. Thanks to 'tall' Jerry Lojka for finding them! And thanks to the 40 folks attending this annual event and to Roger Elliott for preparing the grill again.

CAST is on September 13. I plan on driving the pontoon boat and would appreciate a helper out on the water. Give me a call/email if you are willing. If we have any fishermen please register with Susan at 364-7634. We have the Hargis and Wellcraft available too for your use. I am sure that all able bodies will be welcome to help with set up and clean up with that great day.

PIRATE'S DAY, ARRRRRR
Saturday, September 20...See Page 4

Vice Commodore: Ted Streuli

Arrr, matey, it be Pirate Day!

Arrive by sea or by land, but be at the BoatHouse by 4 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 20 for our second annual Pirate Day celebration.

The wearing of full pirate regalia is very much encouraged and we'll have a costume contest with prizes for the winners. This year we'll have guest pirates mingling in our midst who may engage in some genuine sword fighting for the amusement of all.

Grey Beard Knowles and Wench Karen Mellgren will help young pirates participate in games of skill, racing their ships down the rain gutters, tossing water-filled canon balls until they explode and maybe even passing out a map or two for a chance to hunt for buried treasure. The grown-up pirates can sail into bona fide sea battles upon the tiny dingies armed with water cannons.

There is sure to be some fine music courtesy of One-eye Boren's band and a buccaneer's bounty of food thanks to Peg-leg Moershel. It'll be winding down about 7 p.m., unless there's grog still to be drunk.

New members

Please welcome out newest members: Butch Enterline (individual), Elsbeth Dowd (family), Sam Tiffany (family) and Traci Wells (associate). We're delighted to have you and hope to see you (in costume!) on Pirate Day!

Next meeting

Our next club meeting (aye, back to normal for the fall) will be at 6 p.m. at the BoatHouse on Saturday, October 17. Bring a covered dish to share and a friend! Program to be determined – keep an eye on the Web site and next month's Mainsheet.

To the right is Dave and Joyce Craigie's grandchildren Jonathan and Gabby at the Bustard Island Light House in Georgian Bay, Lake Huron.

The beautiful lighthouse was built in 1875.

Greetings Sailors,

I'm back after a busy summer up north. First of all my heart felt thanks again to Doris Shoemaker for holding down the fort for me in my absence; Thank You Very Much!!!!

For those who are interested, Joyce and I, along with two grand kids, were again in the Canadian waters all summer on our boat Incipient. We put on over 3000 miles trailering and another 800 miles on the water. We had some of the most wonderful sails that could be imagined and got to experience almost two months of on the water life. We rekindled old friendships, made a lot of new friends and look forward to next year. While it is always good to get away and visit distant waters and other sailing friends, it is always wonderful to come home to Oklahoma. Being a trailer/sailor is the life!

Membership re-newals

It is that time of year when we again try to replenish the TSC coffers; our annual membership renewal time is here. It is a necessary function that we do in order to keep the doors open and help pay for club functions. I will be sending your renewal notice in the mail soon and I do hope that you will favor me with a quick response.

If you feel the uncontrollable irresistible urge to renew your membership before I send you a renewal notice, you can do that too. Simply go to the club website www.thunderbirdsailingclub.org click on the membership section and then finish with a payment through Pay Pal. You do not have to fill out the renewal form in its entirety. You only need to submit your name and any other information that may have changed; your mailing address, phone number, e-mail, etc. Thank You in advance for doing this as it makes my job easier and saves the postage, both ways.

I will have a full accounting of our finances next month. If you have questions, please contact me. It is good to be back and I hope to see you on the water. Birthdays are as follows:

FLEET CAPTAIN: Paul Reynolds

It has been a great summer for sailing - it was nice to have Great Pumpkin in the water and ready to go - thanks to Dave Craigie for sub-letting his slip. The Wednesday evening races have been a real treat, with the relative quiet and evening light. I want to thank Bill Etchieson for running a race while I was away. There are two more scheduled events in the Commodore's Cup Series. Mary Anne Secrist leads in Non-Spinnaker while Phil Moershel leads in Spinnaker. No, you do not have to be a current or past Commodore to place in this series. The next race is this Sunday, at 1:30. Meet up at the BoatHouse dock, or find us on the water for a start about 2:00. I will run it from the Committee Boat. It might be a great day for centerboards - I hope to see an FJ and a really cool shocking green Laser. If you don't want to race but would like to help run it, or just spend a pleasant afternoon on the water, join us on the pontoon boat.

The last CC race is the Hiram, November 2 - always a surprise with anything from a dead calm to a freezing gale. The NOR is included in this issue of the Main-sheet.

And of course, don't miss the Layton Regatta, October 12 - I am sure the sign-up list is already filling.

More Fleet Captain report from last month:

The last Commodore's Cup race was held Wednesday July 30th. Another pretty weeknight on the lake. It was particularly nice to watch our newest members, Tim and Elsbeth Dowd, on their Flying Jr., cutting some beautiful roll tacks, and hanging out to leeward in the light air. Nice sailing. Another new member, Vernon Greene, was out with his new Santana 20, ready to give Phil a little company, but snapped a halyard before the race. He expects to be out for the next race, which Bill Etchieson will start, on Wednesday, August 13, at 6:30 PM. I'm really happy that we are attracting some new racers, and that we are able to keep adding races to the schedule. If you would like to run a race, either from the committee boat or as a rabbit start, please let me know!

See you soon,
Paul

Cast for Kids

Saturday, September 13, 2008

The seventh annual CAST for Kids Fishing Derby will be held on Saturday, September 13 at the BoatHouse.

We will have the large tent set up on Thursday evening just north of the BoatHouse as usual and this will be overseen by Asst. Park Manager, Terry Gibson. On Friday we will begin to deliver tables, chairs, ice, rods/reels, tackle boxes, drinks, and some food items. We need help cooking, serving, setting up, registration, etc.,etc. starting at 6am on Saturday morning. The fishermen start arriving around 6:30 and the kids around 8am. They leave on their fishing trip at 9am and return around 11:30 for lunch. We start cooking around 10.

Homeland Foods is providing the food donation again, and we have already had several of our usual donors commit to supporting the event again.

For our new members, this event is sponsored nationally by the CAST for Kids Foundation and locally by U.S. Bureau of Reclamation, Oklahoma Dept. of Tourism and Recreation, the LTEF, and BoatHouse.

We usually have around 30 handicapped children from central Oklahoma attend and a like number of local fishermen with their boats. The kids 7-14 are provided with a morning fishing trip, a new rod/reel, bait, tackle, tackle-box, T-shirt, hat, a plaque, and everyone gets a delicious lunch. Ron Stahl usually serves as MC for the awards following lunch.

We have some 35 donors and sponsors that cover the $1,500-$2,000 in expenses and another $1,000 or so in gifts in kind. For example, the tent alone costs nearly $700 to rent. We will need someone to use the Wellcraft this year to take one of the children fishing, so if you are a fisherman/woman without a boat, let us know. We would also like for someone to take some of kids out on the TSC Pontoon boat too. This boat is good for children in wheelchairs.

The LTEF raises the funds and makes the requests for gifts-in-kind for the event and pays for all the local out of pocket expenses. We hope you can lend a hand!

OU Naval ROTC Class, August 18-23

Submitted by Mike Klatt, Principal Instructor

The BoatHouse training program keeps rolling along. August 23 was the conclusion of the NROTC Basic Sailing, which the BoatHouse conducts as a civilian contractor for the OU NROTC unit. At first glance it seems obvious that the Navy should have sail training for its future officers, but then you start wondering, does a modern navy need sail training? The Navy asked that question a number of years ago, and did away with the sailing requirements. What followed was a decrease in basic seamanship skills. As you think about this a little more, it's obvious that there's nothing like sailing a small sailboat to give you a true feel for boat handling. There is also the sense of tradition, confidence, self-reliance, and teamwork that sailing brings to the table. And so the Navy reinstated the requirement a few years ago, and the BoatHouse has been happy to help. This is the second year of the new jumbo-sized NROTC class, where there is one large class for all new ROTC students during their freshman orientation week.

Based on the forecasts for this week, this class should have been a total disaster. Instead, we got just the weather we needed when we needed it. As a meteorologist I would like to take credit for this, but as we like to say, we handle prediction not production. The two worst weather days, Monday and Tuesday, were both spent warm and dry indoors at the Armory on campus. Wednesday, the first day at the BoatHouse for 2nd Platoon, promised to be another washout. The rain held off after all, but then it looked like we'd be becalmed. The wind filled in just enough as class started for us to have a productive day. Thursday looked like another no-wind day, but again, once class started there was just enough wind. Friday, the final day of class for 2nd Platoon, had plenty of wind--and some of the students would probably say too much. Saturday was the most miraculous day of all. Despite some encouraging puffs early in the morning, the wind died altogether and promised to stay that way based on the forecast. As the students were getting some swimming in and we were pondering when to pull the plug for the day, a surprise line of storms fired up east of Norman and sent some blustery easterlies our way. We rushed to get on the water, and just like their 2nd Platoon classmates, 1st Platoon got to experience some real wind on their final day. No matter where they live, everybody likes to say "if you don't like the weather around here, wait five minutes". In Oklahoma, we can back it up.

Comments from last year and this year indicate that sail training is one of the students' favorite activities during their orientation week. It's apparently not as popular as the shooting range, but it's certainly more popular than 0600 PT (physical training) and MREs (officially Meals Ready to Eat, but there are several more popular/apropos appellations).

Norman's 25 newest sailors are Officer Candidates Houston Benson, Derek Carter, Kristopher Clymer, James Foster, and Gregory Sandness; and Midshipmen Benjamin Amis, Kim Chalfant, Grant Floyd, Arielle Foldoe, Jaylyn Hagen, Ian Hatley, Matthew Hawkins, Churon Hunnicutt, David Isaacs, Elias Kennedy, Erin Lee, Staci Lewis, Aaron Linton, Sean Reeves, John Reidy, Levi Stricklin, Ryan Taber, Chris Wilson, Lance Wright, and Breanna Young. Helping with the class were BoatHouse volunteers Chad Cox, Les Cummings, Dave Craigie, Elsbeth Dowd (brand new volunteer), Butch Enterline (also new to the BoatHouse), Marilyn Friend, Kenna Green, David Hendricks, Glede Holman, Phil Moershel, Te Poon, Paul Reynolds, Mary Anne Secrist, and Karen Thurston; and Lieutenant Matt Osborn and Midshipmen (and 2007 class alumni) David Gulyas, Grant Miller, and Joshua Young from NROTC.

Congratulations to the students and the instructors!

Phil Trotter's Excellent Summer Adventure

Both of the photos below are from the Great Lakes Multi-hull Championships at Bay City, Michigan on Saginaw Bay held Aug.22-24, 2008. A fantastic event with 16 multis competing. The first pic is Phil's boat, Nelda Ray on a spinnaker run during an up-wind, down-wind buoy race on Friday. The second pic is Nelda Ray on a reach in 24 to 34 knot winds during a long distance race on Saturday. The distance race was a blast with the needle on the pucker-meter pegged! And they won it outright beating several boats that had to give them time!

From the Membership Secretary: Welcome more new members

As most of you know, I have been gone all summer (read my note in the treasurer column to avoid repetition) So, not knowing exactly what my trustworthy and dutiful assistant Doris has done in my absence in regards to welcoming new members, I am going to welcome, and perhaps re-welcome all of our new members that have joined in my absence. I sincerely hope that I have not missed anyone and apologize in advance if I have.

First of all I want to welcome all those who took the summer Keelboat class. As a new feature, all those who took the class were given complimentary Associate Memberships to the Thunderbird Sailing Club. I have personally met some of these new sailors and I am impressed with their new found enthusiasm about sailing and their being associated with TSC. We all welcome you and hope that you will enjoy being a part of the BoatHouse and TSC and that perhaps you will become longtime members.

Cap'n Roger Retires!

Just in case you have not heard, LTEF President and former TSC Commodore, Captain Roger Elliott has joined the ranks of the 'retired.'

On Friday September 26 Roger processed his retirement papers at the Department of Medicine at the Oklahoma University Health Sciences Center in Oklahoma City.

That evening Roger's co-workers chartered an Oklahoma River cruise for him, Cheri, and their friends and co-workers from OUHSC. As luck would have it, Cap'n Les was assigned as skipper for the cruise and he reports that all hands were returned safely from the trip down the Oklahoma River.

Roger plans to take a couple months off, catch up on some honeydoos around the house, spend more time with his Dad and even sleep in now and then. Cheri does expect her breakfast to be ready each morning and dinner on the table when she gets home from work each evening.

Plans are also in the works to continue to work p/t at the Department of Medicine once his honeydoos are completed. He and Cheri are also building a vacation home in Colorado which will be a wonderful hideaway during those hot Oklahoma summers.

He and Cheri still plan to stay active in the LTEF and TSC and to retain their partnership in the Catalina 30 "Enya" with Barbara and Les. And who knows, maybe even get out and sail now and then!

The LTEF, BoatHouse, and TSC have been made all the better thanks to Roger's and Cheri's support over the past 15 years. From pretty much a sailing novice to an accomplished off-shore sailor and navigator and now an accomplished River Boat Captain, Roger has lived and continues to live his dreams. We should all be so fortunate.

HAPPY RETIREMENT, ROGER AND CHERI!
